

Company Profile

The Company has witnessed an exponential growth over a short span of time spreading its roots firmly across the logistics sector. We have on board in-house engineers who conduct ASIS study of your complete supply chain operations to provide value added and cost effective solutions to your organization.

The company has a Network backed by excellent infrastructure for undertaking multiple logistics operations across the country. We also have a modern fleet of trailers, trucks, cranes and forklifts to support the projects that we undertake.